ARTICLE I - Name and Principal Office

- Section 1. The name of this professional Association shall be New Orleans Association of Health Underwriters, a non-profit corporation, incorporated as such under the laws of the State of Louisiana as a chartered subsidiary of the National Association of Health Underwriters. Herein after referred to as the association or "NOAHU".
- Section 2. The principal office of this Association shall be located in a place designated by the Board of Directors. The association may have such other offices as may, from time to time, be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II - Purposes

- Section 1. The objectives of NOAHU are:
- A. To promote the common business interests of those engaged in the sale of health, disability and related insurance products and services.
 - B. To advance public knowledge for the need and benefit of the financial protection provided by health, disability and related insurance products and services.
 - C. To promote the adoption and application of high standards of ethical conduct in the health, disability, and related insurance products and service industry.
 - D. To provide and promote a program of continuing education and self improvement of NOAHU members.
 - E. To increase the knowledge of members concerning the principles, functions and applications of health, disability and related insurance products and services.
 - F. To promote education, legislation, regulation and practices which are in best interest of the health, disability and related insurance industry and thus, provide financial protection to the insuring insurance industry and thus provide financial protection to the insuring public.

G. To encourage adequate protection against the hazards of disability as part of a well rounded health, disability, and related insurance products and services program.

H. To do such other things and to carry out such other programs so as to further the purposes of the National Association of Health Underwriters.

Section 2. The association and its members recognize an obligation to present accurately, honestly and completely every fact essential to the client's decision to buy health insurance products as expressed in the NAHU Code of Ethics, which are considered a part of these Bylaws.

ARTICLE III - Membership and Dues

Section 1. Membership in NOAHU will be available under the following designations:

- A. Individual Members
- B. Associate Members
- C. Life Membership
- D. Honorary Membership

Section 2. An individual member may be any individual licensed by his/her state licensing authority for the sale of disability income and health insurance products and related insurance products and services. Individual members who have paid their annual national, state, and local dues will also be referred to as Active Members. The dues for individual membership shall be declared by the Board of Directors with a 2/3rds roll call vote of the members present and voting at a regular board meeting. This Association's dues may only be changed once a year and will be in effect from January 1 through December 31 of each year. Not later than the fifteenth (15th) of September of each year, or a date specified by the National Association of Health Underwriters, if this Association plans to increase or decrease its local chapter dues for the following calendar year, the President shall advise the National Association of Health Underwriters in writing of the Board approved dues for the following year. The General Membership shall have the power to overturn or change the dues proposed by the Board of Directors at the Annual General Membership Meeting. Individual members are entitled to vote in elections, hold office, be a member of the board, and Continuing Education Credits offered by the association after fulfilling all requirements to receive them. Individual members may also include non-licensed individuals engaged in the distribution of disability income and health insurance products such as, but not limited to, home office employees and others engaged in the management and distribution of such products. Individual members will also be referred to as Active Members.

Section 3. The President and Secretary of NOAHU shall, immediately upon election, certify to the Executive Vice President of NAHU the names and titles and addresses of the officers and directors elected to serve in the ensuing period.

Section 4. NOAHU shall operate as a free standing association. It shall have representation on its state association Board of Directors as prescribed in the state association's Bylaws. NOAHU should recognize and support the positions and activities of various local associations within Louisiana's boundaries and interact with the state association for the common good of all associations within the state's boundaries.

Section 5. Associate Member dues shall be $60.00 per annum with no prorating for non-actively selling health insurance people who are entitled to attend general membership meetings without vote on issues or in elections or eligible to hold office in the association. The Secretary shall verify that associate members in attendance will not vote. Associate members are entitled to receive NYCU and attend all social functions of the association.

Section 6. Life Membership.

A. Life membership may be granted when an active member has been in good standing for a minimum of ten (10) consecutive years, and has: (1) attained age 65 and retired; or (2) becomes unable to work due to disability. Life members have the same rights and privileges as individual members. This association shall determine the amount of reduction of local chapter dues, if any. Life member status shall be automatically conferred when all qualifications are met and application is made and verified by the National Association of Health Underwriters.

B. Life members status shall be granted by the Board of Directors after a vote by the board and after a written request to the secretary by the disabled member in good standing. The Board of Directors will make a decision within 90 days after receipt of the request from the member.

ARTICLE IV - Officers

Section 1. The Officers of NOAHU shall be:

A. President

- B. Vice President
- C. Secretary
- D.. Treasurer
- E. Immediate Past President

Section 2. Each officer shall be an active member in good standing.

Section 3. All officers shall serve without compensation.

Section 4. Elections.

A. The President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary shall be elected by the General Membership at its annual meeting. The President shall also be elected if that office has been filled in accordance with the last sentence of Section 4D, below.

B. The aforementioned officers shall be elected for a term of one (1) year beginning July 1 and ending June 30 following the Annual General Membership Meeting to be held in June of each year or until their successors are elected.

C. The office of Immediate Past President shall be filled automatically by the outgoing President. In the event there is no outgoing President, this office shall remain vacant and the President shall appoint a member in good standing to fulfill the duties of the office for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months, or until the office can be filled in accordance with the first sentence of this section. The appointment by the President of a member to fulfill the duties of this office shall be subject to three-fourths (3/4) vote of approval by the Board of Directors.

D. If the office of President becomes vacant due to death, disability, resignation, recall, or removal by due process, the Vice President shall assume the office of President for the unexpired term. The office of Vice President shall become vacant until the next regular election. If the office of President becomes vacant and there is no Vice President, the order of succession shall be Secretary and then Treasurer.

E. If the office of Vice President shall become vacant due to death, disability, resignation, recall, or removal by due process, or by succession to the Presidency under Section 4D, listed above, the President shall appoint a member in good standing to fulfill the duties of the office for its unexpired term. The appointment shall be subject to a three-fourths (3/4) vote of approval by the Board of Directors. The office itself shall remain vacant until the next regular election.

F. If the office of Treasurer become vacant by death, disability, resignation, recall or removal by due process or by succession under Section 4D, listed above, they shall be filled by appointment by the President. The appointment shall be subject to three-fourths (3/4) vote of approval of the Board of Directors and shall be only for the unexpired term of the particular office. Appointees shall assume the title and duties of the office.

G. The power to appoint or nominate replacements for any vacancy, except as described in Section 4E above, shall be restricted to unexpired terms.

H. The President and the Secretary of NOAHU shall, immediately upon election, certify to the Executive Vice President of NAHU the names and titles and addresses of the officers and directors elected to serve in the ensuing period.

ARTICLE V - Duties of Officers

Section 1. President.

A. The President shall be the Chief Elected Officer of this association and shall preside over all meetings of the Association, and the Board of Directors. The President shall appoint all committees whose membership is not otherwise established by these Bylaws and shall be an ex-officio member of all committees formed under this Association, except the Nominations Committee. Together with the Vice President, the President shall represent this Association at various industry meetings and shall perform such other duties as usually pertain to the office, including the assignment of specific duties to other Officers and Directors. The Board of Directors shall approve in the budget a presidential discretionary fund not to exceed the annual, local dues of ten (10) members. The amount shall be set annually by the board. This fund shall be used for association activities and expenses verified by receipt without any further board approval.

B. The President shall also be empowered to fill all vacancies in the manner prescribed by these Bylaws. Upon completion of his/her term, the President shall assume the office of Immediate Past President.

Section 2. The Vice President

A. The Vice President shall immediately assume the office of President when that office becomes vacant by reason of death, disability, resignation, recall or removal by due process. The board shall approve in the budget a Vice President discretionary fund not to exceed the annual, local dues of ten (10) members. The amount shall be set annually by the board. This fund shall be used for association activities and expenses verified by receipt without further board approval.

B. The Vice President shall oversee the activities of the Standing Committees assigned to him/her by the President, and shall be responsible for other duties as they are assigned to him/her by the President, or Board of Directors.

Section 3.

The Treasurer shall submit an annual financial report to the Board of Directors and at the Annual Meeting of the General Membership. The Treasurer shall oversee the preparation of the annual financial report required by ARTICLE XI, Section 5. The Treasurer shall be responsible for receiving all funds and dues paid to this Association and shall deposit such funds and dues in the Association's official depositories, and shall disburse such funds with receipts, or invoices, or other written documentation on the order of the Board of Directors. Failure of the Treasurer to provide written proof of itemized expenditures shall make the Treasurer liable for restitution of any unaccountable funds as well as being subject to Article X. The accounts and books of the Association shall at all times be open to inspection by any member in good standing. The Treasurer shall be responsible for other duties as they are assigned by the President or the Board of Directors.

Section 4.

The Secretary shall be responsible for taking the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors and general membership meetings. The Secretary shall maintain the Association's Policy and Procedures. The approved, amended or rescinded P&P's shall be signed by the Secretary and stored as permanent records of the Association at the local office. The Secretary shall keep, for a period of two years, a copy of all out going and incoming correspondence of the Board of Directors, the president, and any board member with authority from the Secretary to issue outgoing correspondence. Any correspondence mentioned in the minutes shall become part of the minutes and a permanent record of the Association. The Secretary shall keep and secure the corporate Seal. The Secretary may appoint assistants as is deemed necessary to execute these duties. The Secretary shall be responsible for other duties as they are assigned by the President or Board of Directors.

Section 5. The Immediate Past President shall serve as an advisor to the President and to the Board of Directors. He/she shall cast the single vote for officers and directors when there are no opposition candidates at the annual election, and perform other duties assigned by the President or the Board of Directors. In the event that the Immediate Past President position becomes vacant, or in the event that the Immediate Past President is unable to cast the single vote for officers and directors when there is no opposition candidates whether by absence or physical incapacitation, the President shall appoint any past president of the Association being present at the General Membership Meeting to cast the vote to elect the officers and board members. The ballot shall indicate that the signatory is not the Immediate Past President in accordance with this Article and Section.

Section 6. The Board of Directors may assign specific officers to be ex-officio members of various Standing Committees or Task Forces.

ARTICLE VI - Board of Directors

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall consist of the elected officers of the NOAHU and the following directors: Public Relations, Public Service, Communications, Legislation, Information, Membership, Education, Awards, and Program. These directors shall be elected along with the officers at the Annual General Membership Meeting and shall take office beginning July 1 through June 30 of the next administration. The Directors shall be elected for a period of two years.
